Apparel, Merchandising, and Textiles Program Bylaws
Washington State University
Administrative Home: College of Agriculture, Human and Natural Resource Sciences
Last Revised by Faculty: May 2010
Faculty Senate Approval Date:

I. Objectives

A. Degrees offered: Master of Arts in Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles

B. Discipline: Apparel, Merchandising, and Textiles is a general reference to the fields of merchandising, apparel design, and textiles. The discipline generally has multiple areas of specialization among which WSU offers merchandising, design, consumer studies, apparel/textile product development and textile sciences.

C. Mission of the Program: The mission of graduate education in the Department of Apparel, Merchandising, Design, and Textiles is to produce professionals for whom the master’s degree may or may not be their final terminal degree and who will leave the program with professional level expertise in one or more of our departmental specializations within the discipline: Apparel/Textile Product Development, Creative Scholarship and Design, Merchandising, Consumer Studies, and Textile Sciences. Specifically, the graduate program is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and development of theory related to textiles, clothing, and appearance. In an atmosphere of collegiality, faculty and students assimilate, evaluate, develop and implement theoretical and applied research that addresses relevant issues of the textile/apparel/retail industry, consumers and individuals. Graduates enter positions in business and industry, higher education, museums, and public and private agencies.

II. Membership

A. Graduate Faculty within the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles program may be WSU tenured and tenure track faculty, WSU non-tenure track faculty, or WSU adjunct faculty, subject to the limitations and definitions in this document. All Graduate Faculty must be “Initial Program Faculty” (listed in Section XI of this document) or subsequently approved as Graduate Faculty through the process outlined in section B below.

1. WSU Campus Participation

   a. The Master’s of Arts degree in Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles is offered through the Pullman campus of Washington State University as approved and authorized by the Higher Education Coordinating Board (HECB) of Washington State. The campuses at Vancouver, Spokane, and Tri-Cities are not approved and authorized by the HECB to directly advertise and offer the degree as individual campuses.

2. Graduate Faculty Participation
   a. Graduate Faculty participation in Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles is independent and separate from academic department, school, or college affiliations.
   b. All active members of the Graduate Faculty of Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles are eligible to vote on program issues.
   c. The participation of emeriti faculty will be determined by the Graduate Program Director on a case by case basis.

3. Disciplinary Expertise
   Graduate Faculty within Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles are expected to have a PhD or equivalent doctoral-level degree in a field related to Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles. In addition, they must have demonstrated disciplinary expertise in a field related to Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles, interest and experience in mentoring and teaching of graduate students in this field, and relevant professional accomplishments.

4. Active Research Appropriate to Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Graduate Faculty must be actively involved in research and graduate level teaching related to Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles as evidenced by recent external grant or contract support, related peer-reviewed publications within the last 5 years, graduate student mentoring within the last 5 years, teaching of relevant graduate level courses, or other relevant professional accomplishments.

5. Non-Tenure Track Graduate Faculty
   a. Internal to WSU Non-tenure track Graduate Faculty internal to WSU include research, clinical, and affiliate faculty. These faculty may be active Apparel, Merchandising, and Textiles Graduate Faculty and they entitled to act as co-chair or members of graduate student committees; teach graduate courses; and supervise research. When serving as co-chair of a student committee they must work with a chair who is an active tenured or tenure-track member of the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Graduate Faculty.

   b. External to WSU Professionals who are not WSU faculty may be granted Graduate Faculty participation within Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles if they are first officially approved as adjunct faculty for WSU. Adjunct faculty who are approved as active Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Graduate Faculty are entitled to act as a member of graduate student committees; teach graduate courses; and supervise research. They may not serve as student committee chair or co-chair; Program Director; or as an Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Program committee member.

6. External Individual Committee Members

a. Individual Committee Member Internal to WSU: Individuals not officially participating as Graduate Faculty within Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Program (for example, a faculty member from another WSU department or program) may serve on graduate committees as long as they are a member of the Graduate Faculty in their own program or discipline and their committee appointment is approved by the Program Director of Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Program.

b. Individual Committee Member External to WSU: Individuals not officially participating as Graduate Faculty within any graduate program at WSU (for example, a faculty member from another university or research entity) may be approved to serve as a thesis/dissertation committee member for an individual student on a case-by-case basis. The committee chair for that student should forward the name and a curriculum vitae of the desired committee member to the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Program Director. With approval of the Program Director, the nomination (with accompanying CV or other documentation of expertise) is forwarded to the Dean of the Graduate School for final approval.

B. Application for Membership

1. Initial Graduate Faculty within Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles are listed in Section XI of this document and have been approved by the current Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles faculty, Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Program Director, and Dean of the Graduate School.

2. Candidates for Graduate Faculty participation within Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles should be nominated by a current Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Graduate Faculty member or may self-nominate. The nomination should include a letter of nomination, and a curriculum vitae for the nominee. The Program Director will circulate application materials to all active Graduate Faculty prior to voting. Acceptance as Graduate Faculty requires a positive vote from a majority of faculty who respond to the vote.

3. In addition to a commitment to maintain the highest standards of mentoring for graduate students, anticipated contributions or qualifications for all successful Graduate Faculty applicants include one or more of the following:

   a. Evidence of an active, funded research program that can plausibly be relied upon as the source of continuing support of an Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles graduate student.

   b. History of or willingness to participate as appropriate in administrative, teaching, and other functions of the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles graduate program. This may include serving on graduate program administrative committees; serving as a committee member or chair; or providing graduate level instruction.

   c. History of significant visibility of peer review research and creative scholarship in a discipline related to Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles.

C. Continuation of Active Membership

1. Graduate Faculty appointments to Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles will be reviewed for continuation of active membership by the program Director every 3 years with one-third of the membership reviewed each year. They will be evaluated for contributions to graduate instruction, research, and teaching. Contributions to the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles program shall be a requirement for continued active membership. Contribution may take the form of:

   a. Committee chair, co-chair or member for graduate students in Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles
   b. Teaching or co-teaching a graduate course in Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles
   c. Supervising research for graduate students in Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles
   d. Serving in the administrative and committee structure of Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles

2. Faculty who do not make any of the contributions as stated in C.1 above to the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles program for three consecutive years will be designed as inactive Graduate Faculty. Inactive Graduate Faculty do not have voting rights. Initiation of any of these activities described in C.1 above will result in restoration of active Graduate Faculty designation.

D. Discontinuation of Membership

Upon request of an active or inactive Graduate Faculty member, that individual membership will be discontinued. If that individual’s research and creativity activity, and graduate training activity should change, they may reapply for Graduate Faculty participation at any time.

E. Membership Appeal Process
Faculty appeal of any membership decision in Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles must be made in writing to the Graduate Program Director of Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles within 30 calendar days of the decision. The appeal is determined by a majority vote of all Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Graduate Faculty (see Section IX for definition of quorum). Final written appeal may be made to the Dean of the Graduate School within 30 calendar days of the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Graduate Faculty vote.

III. Administration

The Chair of the Apparel, Merchandising, Design and Textiles Department is also the Graduate Program Director. Administration of the program and its activities is vested in the Chair of Apparel, Merchandising, Design and Textiles Department with assistance from the Graduate Program Coordinator, a faculty member chosen by the director and input from members of the Apparel, Merchandising and Textiles Graduate Faculty. The Departmental Program Assistant, a staff member, provides administrative support but is a non-voting member.

Other ad hoc committees may be appointed by the Program Director as needed including those to address recruiting activities and curriculum review. Addition of new, or changes to the existing, standing committees must be approved by amendment of bylaws.
